Those Young People

The smart housekeeping with this as their grocery supply house are wise indeed. Especially in table luxuries and relatives our goods are desired. They tell the best of old home products which they, in fact, export.

We especially invite young couples to try our specialties. Older people generally know and appreciate their excellence.

The new book catalog for the Carnegie library has arrived and been placed on the floor, adding greatly to the appearance of the building. It was purchased through the Brooks Printing company.

Miss Lily Berglund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Berglund of Price, and Archie Davis of Duchesne were married at Duchesne, Wednesday. They are stopping for the present at the home of the bride's parents on North Eighth street.

A. H. Apperson, general manager of the United States Fuel company, announces from Salt Lake City that the Southern Utah railroad has placed an order for two gasoline motor cars to be used in the passenger service between Price and the coal camps to the south.

W. J. Lester, representing the famous Robinson show, was in Price Tuesday making arrangements for the appearance of this big attraction in Price about July 11th or 12th. The show is traveling east and will stop here for one day and night performance, being at Provo and Salt Lake City before coming here.

V. A. Tompkins, agent of the Denver and Rio Grande at Price, is making arrangements for the appearance in Price some time in August of the Kansas City Hot Stockings. The club is traveling east from the coast and will probably play Sunnyside and Castle Gate on the Price diamond, the date to be determined later.

Increases in passenger fares recently granted Eastern railroads by the interstate commerce commission became effective last Friday. The regular one-way fares between Missouri river points and the East are advanced from one to three dollars. No change is made, however, in the excursion round-trip fares announced for this summer.

A. M. Holt, serving a prison term at Salt Lake City for adultery, has again been denied clemency by the state board of pardons. He was sentenced from Carbon county a few months ago. Frank Horsley of Myton, grand larceny, was on Saturday last granted a parole. Andrew Flores, Carbon county, was denied clemency. He is serving time for robbery.

County Commissioners George Linday and Jim Russell left Monday for Salt Lake City, where they will confer with various state officials on county business. While away they will attend the good roads meeting at Ogden. The commissioners are making a road inspection trip. They left by way of Helper and will return over the Price to Myton road, says Myton's Free Press of the 15th.

According to word from Moab, work on the Big Indian copper mill has been started and the three hundred-ton mill will require a large number of men to build and later operate. The Big Indian mine will be operated similarly to the famous Bingham copper mine, the largest in the world and where many steam shovels are employed. This ore will be loaded at Crescent, a siding near Green River.

These new books have been added to the gay shelf of the Carnegie library at Price this week. The Little Lady of the Big House, Jack London; Life and Gabriella, Ellen Glasgow; Fellowship Grove, R. H. Porter; The Best Adventure, H. K. Webster; Gifts to the library this week are Plays of Oscar Wilde, Miss Elizabeth Mayner; the Young Conductor, Faith Gartney's Girlhood and Pilgrim's Progress, Melville Lowie.

On the honor roll of the Denver and Rio Grande for the month of May, 1916, are the names of J. F. Gesslin, Thompson; O. H. Walk, Scofield; C. H. Cody, Helper; C. Y. Esperson, Ephraim; D. R. Brown, Green River; Ira Overfelt, Gunnison; and V. A. Tompkins at Price. The latter was on the honor roll for the previous month and for May gave the company an increase of 18 per cent in business over April, 1915.

Through time tables to all principal points in the West are contained in the Traveler's Railway Guide, which is just off the press at Salt Lake City. The book, which has for its keynote "See America," contains maps of each of the Western States, showing the larger towns and cities, the railroad routes and in the division of town classification it lists each city, the names of its hotels and other information of value to the traveler.

The Delta (Colo.) Times of recent date contains this reference to former residents of Price: "Mrs. Milton W. Miller and two daughters are expected to arrive in Delta the first of next week to join Mr. Miller. They will reside on Meeker, near the Catholic church. Mr. Miller, aside from being the crack catcher for the Delta baseball team, has opened up a tailoring shop on Main street, where he is prepared to not only make clothes but to repairing as well."

Jay Gould, former tennis champion of America and the son of George J. Gould, passed through Price Wednesday morning in a special car attached to one of the regular trains. He was en route from Chicago with his family to the Pacific Coast.

The postoffice at Cotton has reopened after being closed for several months. Russ Johnson is the new postmaster there. During the period that the office has been closed through the mail has been distributed through the office at Soldier's Summit.

Miss Muriel Wade entertained the Campfire girls at her home last Monday afternoon. Choice refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed by those present. Next Monday the Campfire girls are going to Riverside Park for an outing.

C. A. Pranks, a local photographer, was arrested and lodged in the county jail last Friday on the charge of an indecent assault upon Gladys, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jamison of Price. Saturday last Pranks had a hearing before Justice Arthur J. Lee and was bound over to district court under five hundred dollar bonds. The case comes up at the next term of court.

In a letter from J. W. Smith at Price he states that he has been in Castle Gate for a short time, but is again at Price, with his daughter, Mrs. Homer Pearson, says last Friday's Green River Dispatch. Dr. J. M. Graham of Castle Gate has been in attendance on Mr. Smith and advised an operation for twisted intestines. It would be decided definitely Sunday or Monday. Mr. Smith was taken from here to Castle Gate to receive treatment and has suffered considerably.

Efforts have been made recently to secure a high class pitcher from the Price team, says last Friday's Verona Express. Harry Schultz is the man it was hoped to secure. He is an old star in the Union association. Price evidently lost the price the local management made, for Schultz "broke a rib" at an opportune moment and so will not be with us. However, efforts will be made to secure another. With Teddy King with Duchesne and Burridge with Roosevelt and Elmer Denver with the Indians it is apparent that Verona needs someone out of the ordinary.

Says Green River's Dispatch of last Friday "County Commissioner O. R. Gillispie has just been notified by E. H. Morgan, state road engineer, that at a recent meeting of the commission the road from Green River to the Carbon county line by way of Woodville was designated as a state road. This will be a blessing to the road enthusiasts of the section and efforts will now be made to get the road put in tip-top shape for the Midland trail summer tourist traffic, which has already started. Tentative arrangements are being made by Gillispie for a patrol of this road."

Salt was filed last Tuesday in the federal district court by Walter L. Maas against the Silver Shield Mining company concerning ownership of five thousand shares of the defendant's mining stock, valued by the complainant at $7500. According to the plaintiff, who is a resident of California, he purchased five thousand shares of the Utah mining company's stock on March 21, 1912, and the defendant since has refused to acknowledge his alleged right to the ownership of the security. Maas was prominent in the early development of the Mohrland coal mines and the building of the Castle Valley railroad south of Price.

Salt Lake's Tribune of the 17th has this item among its society news: "Mrs. Frank W. Dole entertained at bridge yesterday afternoon at her home, 305 Second avenue, in honor of her sister, Mrs. R. K. Brown, who will leave next Tuesday for Los Angeles to make her home, and also for Mrs. Robert Fowler of North Ansony, N. J., and Mrs. Roy C. Wyland, guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Savage. The decorations were in roses and peonies in pink. The guests were in the living room and the roses in a cutglass bowl formed a centerpiece for the tea table in the dining room. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Will Ellerbe and Mrs. George Steiner. Assisting in serving were Miss Irene Savage and Miss Rosella Ellerbe. Guests were entertained at eight tables of bridge, followed by tea."

CELEBRATE IN PRICE

Parade, Program and Sports Will Make Up Appropriate Exercises.

Arrangements are fast being completed for the Fourth of July celebration in Price this year, which according to those who have been appointed to take charge of the affair, will be the biggest and best celebration that the citizens of this city have ever attempted. Nothing is to be spared in the way of expense to make it a grand celebration, and we are sure that Independence Day will be observed here in a manner commensurate to the past and present growth of the city.

A great patriotic and industrial parade is being planned to take place at an early hour during the day. Numerous floats will be provided by the merchants and after the parade a program will be rendered at City Park. The committee is bending every effort to make it the best ever held here.

There will be horse races, bucking contests, ball games and other sports too numerous to mention. The Colonial parade will be a specially interesting feature. The contest for the goddess of liberty will be held at the Elko theater tonight (Friday), when each paid admission to that house will receive one hundred votes which may be voted for their choice.

Make your arrangements to celebrate in Price this year, as there will be something doing on that day.

MACHINERY FOR INDIAN

PHOTO, June 19.—Work on the bridge over the Grand river to reinforce it sufficiently to admit of the heavy machinery for the Big Indian copper mine and mill being hauled over it began Saturday. Some of the machinery is now at the railroad station ready to be taken to the mine.

PRICE LOSES TO CASTLE GATE AGAIN

ONE-SIDED BATTLE PULLED OFF LAST SUNDAY.

In the Carbon County League Castle Gate defeated Price by a score of thirteen to one—Inability of Local Team to Hit Was the Cause of the Big Score Against County Seters.

Price went to Castle Gate last Sunday where a game was played with that team. There was a fair sized crowd in attendance and the slaughter of the Price boys commenced in the second inning when Castle Gate got five runs. One in the fourth and seven in the eighth made a total of thirteen. As usual the Price boys had a delightful outing and enjoyed the day immensely.

In the game between Helper and Sunnyside on the latter's ground, Helper was beaten by a score of five to one. Following is the lineup of the Price-Castle Gate game:

Claude A. Ryner and Miss Vivian Fullmer were married Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Isabel Ryner of this city, Bishop Albert Ryner, an uncle of the groom, officiating. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for Salt Lake City on a trip of several days. They are to make their home at Hildreth, where the groom holds a responsible position with the United States Fuel company. The Sun with many good friends of these excellent young people extends its congratulations.
